Senate Committee Meets Magnates. While the senate committee today was holding a nine hour meeting at which representatives of the railroads, the employes and the shippers gave their views or the situation and the proposed legislation, the president held frequent conferences with members of congress and sent for brotherhood leaders and earnestly urged them to rescind the strike order. When the trainmen left, the White

Washington, Aug, 31.—Retaliatory legislation striking at the commerce of the entente allies in support of diplomatic protests against interferences with American trade has been decided upon as a general policy of the government after extended conferences between state department officials and leaders in congress. This was stated officially today, with the explanation that provisions written into the shipping bill and the pending revenue bill were first steps in the policy.

Up to now, a high official pointed out, the United States has relied solely on the equity of its case and the sense of justice of the belligerent nations, but despite frequent protests on various phases of the allies blockade the principle of which this government has denounced as illegal in a sweeping note, trade pressure and discrimination has been been incomment and descrimination. from the United States in the year ending Jun 30. This course would have been taken some time ago, it was stated, except that all plans of retailation proposed were obviously illegal.

The amendment to the revenue bill, adopted by the senate, would give the president discretionary power to prohibit the importation into this country of preducts which cannot be imported into foreign countries from the United States.
